

The month of January is filled with resolutions and new beginnings. It's also the perfect time to reincorporate whole grains into your diet. At Great Harvest, we mill our wheat flour daily to keep it whole and maintain all the protein, fiber, vitamins, minerals, phytochemicals, and antioxidants wheat kernels naturally provide. See the back page to learn about some of our favorite whole grain breads!

Heart-Healthy Whole Grains

Our whole grain breads are made with whole wheat flour we mill in the back of our bakery every day. Once milled, we don't remove or add anything to our flour, allowing the taste and nutrition of Montana's finest wheat to speak for itself. Check out some of our favorite whole grain breads below!

Dakota

Dakota is both delicious and nutritious, containing millet, sesame, sunflower and poppy seeds. It is also co-owner Lee's pick for peanut butter toast! Try some yourself on Tuesdays, Thursdays, & Saturdays.

High Five Fiber

With 5 grams of fiber per slice, High Five Fiber is the bread for gut health. It's packed with oat bran, wheat bran, flax seeds, millet, sunflower seeds, and blueberries for a touch of sweetness! Available on Tuesdays.

North Country Crunch

This whole grain bread is filled with pecans, flax seeds, millet, and sunflower seeds. Try it toasted with your favorite nut butter or as the base for the sandwich of your dreams. Available every Friday.

Whole Grain Goodness

This bread's name says it all! With almonds, pecans, sunflower seeds, millet, and flax seeds, these loaves are perfect for sandwiches, toast, dinners, and snacking! Available January 10th and 24th.

Groovy Granola!

Get your groove on with some Groovy Granola! Rolled oats, sunflower seeds, and almonds are sweetened by molasses, cinnamon, and Wisconsin honey to create the perfect granola for all your snacking needs. Take your pick between plain or with fruit (raisins and dried cranberries). Available daily, unless sold out.
